

No Action Taken On Work Relief By Common Council

Finance Committee Fails to Report on Request for $55,000 Appropriation—To Issue Bonds to Refund Bank Share Taxes—Suggest City Buy Old Armory for Civic Center—Other Matters.

The finance, ways and means committee of the Common Council made no report Tuesday evening at the regular monthly meeting of the council on the request of the Emergency Work Relief Committee for an additional appropriation of $55,000 to carry out four new work projects. The request had been referred to the finance committee at the June meeting of the council. It was also expected that the council would be asked for an additional appropriation of $60,000 to carry on public relief work here and president Alfred Schmid of the Board of Public Welfare was present at the council session, but the matter was not brought up at the meeting.

The additional appropriation of $55,000 for work relief was to be used in taking out the curves and improving the Boulevard and several adjoining streets. As the matter was not reported out of committee Tuesday night it is hardly likely that any action will be taken until the August meeting unless a special meeting of the council is called.

Mayor Eugene B. Carey was not present at the meeting. He has been ill with a heavy cold for several days. President C. J. Heiselman presided at the meeting with all of the aldermen in attendance.

One Hour Parking

The council unanimously adopted an ordinance prepared by the traffic control committee providing for one hour parking on East Strand between Broadway and Hasbrouck avenue, and that block on Broadway between Downs street and Elmendorf street.

To Issue Bonds

At the last meeting of the council the aldermen unanimously adopted a resolution providing that the city reimburse the four National Banks of the city for half the amount of the bank shares which had been taxed some years ago, and which tax had since been declared illegal by the courts. The plan to reimburse the banks who had agreed to accept one-half of the amount of the tax they had paid was to take the form of the city issuing certificates of indebtedness to run over a ten-year period.

Through some misunderstanding the aldermen had been informed that the banks had agreed to accept these long term certificates. Later it developed that the banks had not agreed but were willing to accept bonds.

The former action of issuing certificates was rescinded and the council unanimously adopted an ordinance providing for the issuance of bonds to extend over a four-year period in the sum of $46,175.25. These bonds are to pay interest at the rate of 5 per cent and will shortly be offered for sale. The proceeds will be used to refund the banks.

Zucca Asked Questions

When the matter came up Alderman Zucca wanted to know why the banks would not accept certificates of indebtedness. He wanted to know if it was because the present city administration had repudiated the payment of $135,000 in certificates that had been issued last year.

President Heiselman said he understood that it was illegal to issue long term certificates.

Corporation Counsel Chris J. Flanagan stated that certificates should only be issued for short terms and only in anticipation of the collection of taxes.

Alderman Zucca said that he wondered if the banks had not refused to accept the certificates because the city was not paying the certificates issued last year.

"I don't think so," replied Corporation Counsel Flanagan.

Court Hearing July 15

Alderman Zucca said he would like to know what was the status of the certificates issued last year which had been repudiated by the present administration.

Corporation Counsel Flanagan said that the banks had brought suit against the city to recover and that the matter came up for a hearing before Supreme Court Justice Staley on July 15.

Additional Clerk Hire

The council unanimously appropriated an additional $300 to be used to pay for the hire of additional clerks in the city treasurer's office to get out the school tax bills. This is the procedure taken every year at tax time.

Mayor Carey's Request

Mayor Carey sent in a communication asking that the aldermen permit the council chamber to be used once a month by immigration officials to conduct hearings on applications of aliens desiring to become citizens. This would obviate the necessity of aliens having to go to Ellis Island or Albany for a formal hearing.

Sniper Defied Police At Capital, Killed 1 And Wounded Another

Hundred Police Held at Bay by Sniper at Washington Who Tried "To Start Some Fireworks"—Tear Gas Used.

Washington, July 6 (AP).—A sniper whose rifle and pistols killed one policeman, wounded another and kept at least a hundred more at bay for three hours finally surrendered early today and said simply that he had tried "to start some fireworks."

In his house on First street, Southeast, just five blocks from the Capitol, he ejected a son at pistol point, locked the doors and fought off death and capture despite riot guns, machine guns and tear gas bombs.

After marine corps sharpshooters had reinforced the major portion of the capital's police, the gas and wound forced him into the open. As he was put into a cell to await an inquest today he said:

"I just did it to have some fun, to start some fireworks."

Wife Prostrated

He gave his name as Nicholson Long. Before Long's capture, hundreds of curious were kept out of the danger zone where E. A. Swanson, a police rookie of but a few months service, fell fatally wounded with a bullet in his forehead while A. C. Poulson, another private on the force, was shot through the arm and chest.

Long's wife, prostrated in a hospital, could give no explanation of her husband's actions save to tell police that "he was always a mean man."

Only luck saved him from death. Several times he rushed from the house in clouds of tear gas to get fresh air. Once he dashed out while eight riflemen in the park across the street from his three-story row-house shot at him from the roof.

He ran from floor to floor, window to window, shooting at anyone in sight and appearing somewhere else as soon as the fire was concentrated on his last stand. Searchlights throwing the house into brilliant outline failed to help the sharpshooters' aim.

Several police and bystanders, including an 18-year-old girl, were treated at the hospital for gas poisoning. Long, who said he was 48, was exhausted.

Mrs. Dolores Barney Acquitted of Killing Thomas Scott Stephen

Jury Acquitted English Society Matron on All Counts After Two Hours Deliberation—Defendant Collapses at Decision.

London, July 6 (AP).—Mrs. Elvira Dolores Barney, accused of murdering her lover, Thomas William Scott Stephen, was acquitted by a jury today of both murder and manslaughter counts against her.

She also was exonerated on another indictment charging intent to do Stephen grievous bodily harm.

The jury was out a little less than two hours.

When she realized that the jury had acquitted her, Mrs. Barney collapsed and was carried from the courtroom practically unconscious.

Lady Mullens, her mother, also collapsed, but was revived.

Stephen, son of a prominent financier, was fatally shot in Mrs. Barney's apartment on the night of May 21.

The defense was that the pistol was discharged accidentally as the two struggled for its possession.

Mrs. Barney testified that she had threatened to commit suicide and that Stephen, seizing her pistol from its hiding place, had started to leave the apartment when she pursued him.

Because of the prominence of both Stephen and Mrs. Barney, the trial had attracted great crowds since Monday, when it began. The spectators for the most part have been persons prominent in society and in the arts.

The defendant was discharged immediately after the verdict was given, but Justice her not to leave Old Bailey until the crowds had been cleared from the streets in the vicinity.

Rob Cigarette Service Co.
New York, July 6 (AP).—Scoopings up between $3,999 and $5,000, mostly in nickels and dimes, in the office of the Rowe Cigarette Service Co., 19 East 16th street, today, three armed robbers escaped in a stolen automobile. It was owned by a salesman for the concern and was parked in front of the office. The company operates cigarette vending machines in railroad terminals, restaurants and billiard rooms.

$2,100,000,000 Relief Bill Awaits Action Of Leaders' Compromise

Washington, July 6 (AP).—The future of the $2,100,000,000 Democratic-sponsored relief bill hung today upon White House discussions in which President Hoover and six members of Congress hoped to compromise.

Mr. Hoover indicated yesterday he would veto the measure as it was agreed to by House and Senate conferees, and summoned 16 party leaders of both houses to a meeting last night at which he explained his objections.

Then a White House statement saying there was a "general disposition" to compromise followed an announcement of further talks today with a sub-committee of six.

Speaker Garner, who pushed the relief measure through the House; Representative Rainey, Democratic leader, and Representative Snell, Republican chief; Senator Wagner (D., N. Y.) whose bill was merged with Garner's; Senator Robinson, Democratic leader, and Chairman Norbeck of the banking committee.

House action on the bill, scheduled for today, was delayed pending a possible agreement.

Plans for adjournment also hung on the meeting. The sub-committee members, who talked with Mr. Hoover for two hours last night, were confronted again today with his objections to:

Features providing loans to individuals; allotment of $200,000,000 for relief loans to states on the basis of population; the $222,000,000 allowance for public works.

The chief executive objected principally to the former, but in his statement last night he said simply: "At a conference with leaders of the Senate and House the President stated his objections to the form of the relief bill as it now stands."

There was a general discussion of these objections and a general disposition to meet them and to reach a compromise agreement acceptable to all.

"In an effort to arrive at a definite conclusion it was agreed that a sub-committee should meet with the President tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock."

Discuss Bank Bill.
While the outcome of this new meeting was awaited, the Senate turned again to the administration-favored home loan bank bill.

Senator Bingham (R., Conn.) had promised he would try to force action on his rider to this bill to legalize 3.2 per cent beer. In the House, the Republican wet bloc was called into a meeting to lay plans for speeding a similar measure introduced by Representative Britten (R., Ill.).

Except for that carrying funds for the War Department, all of the annual appropriations bills had been sent to the White House. The Senate completed action yesterday on the Agriculture Department allotment, agreeing to discard its demand for grasshopper control money.

The President had signed the $1,056,000,000 Treasury-post office bill as well as one for the distribution to the needy through the Red Cross of 40,000,000 bushels of wheat and 500,000 bales of cotton from farm board stores.

SEARCH FOR TWO MEN WHO KILLED LOCKPORT MAN.

Lockport, N. Y., July 6 (AP).—State and county police today began a widespread search for two men who last night shot and fatally wounded John Kasprzak, 50, as he stepped from the door of his house on the Hartland road, 12 miles northeast of here, to welcome them.

The shooting occurred shortly before dark. His wife, the only witness to the killing, told County Coroner Dr. Frank T. Carner that the two men drove up to the house while she was working in the front yard and asked for her husband. Before she could call him Kasprzak stepped out of the front door, she said, and the men fired four shots, all of which took effect. As Kasprzak fell the men jumped into their automobile and drove rapidly off in the direction of Hartland Corners.

Later, police arrested Bruno (Beary) Polowicz, 36, a tailor of Niagara Falls. Sergeant Robert H. Gibson, of the state police, says Polowicz will be taken to Hartland and arraigned before a justice of the peace on a first degree murder charge.

John Larke, 26, also of Niagara Falls, is being detained for questioning in connection with the case. A third man who is sought by police is alleged to have taken out $5,000 insurance on the dead man's life.

OLYMPIC COMMITTEE $48,000 FROM ITS GOAL

New York, July 6 (AP).—The American Olympic committee which despaired of raising enough money to send a full representation to the games at Los Angeles, has announced it is now only $48,000 from its goal.

President Agnew Brundage declined to give the exact amount raised but said the goal considerably below the $250,000 originally sought was in sight. All expenses of the winter sports team have been paid.

The committee last night set limits on every team so that the total number of American contestants will be 240. This is some 60 under the delegation sent to Amsterdam in 1928.

Norwich, N. Y., July 6 (AP).—Colonel William J. Donovan, lawyer and war hero, has entered the New York gubernatorial lists. Howard Sumner, secretary of the Chemung county Republican committee, announced last night that headquarters for Donovan will be opened in Norwich.

The chairman of the county committee, Melvin C. Eaton, is in New York planning the Donovan campaign. Sumner said.

Col. Donovan was a deputy attorney general during the Coolidge administration. He commanded the 165th Infantry in the war and was decorated for bravery.

Hit at Reforestation Policy of Roosevelt

Call July 4 Telegram of Governor Tammany an "Inauspicious Beginning" and Surrender—McAdoo Summarizes.

Washington, July 6 (AP).—The political talk went on across the land today, stimulated by charges from administration Republicans in Washington that Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt had surrendered to Tammany Hall and that his reforestation program is "utterly visionary and chimerical."

But one of his most ardent supporters, William G. McAdoo, in a New York speech summarized: "All this talk of deals and trades is simply and only echoes of a sharp contest and the disappointments that always follow such a battle."

He praised the Roosevelt acceptance speech as "masterful," predicting that enough voters believe in the Governor's program "to see that he is enabled to make it effective."

Bishop James Cannon, Jr., insisted at Indianapolis that he had not forecast a Republican victory in his July 4 speech at Ocean Grove, New Jersey.

Analyzed Platforms.
He said he had analyzed Democratic and Republican platforms, recalling that the former is for repeal while the latter is "not binding upon any official or member" of the G. O. P.

"Until Mr. Hoover speaks, final judgment must be reserved," Cannon asserted, adding that he had said the eighteenth amendment would not be repealed.

The administration criticism came from Secretary Hyde of Agriculture and Senator Moses of New Hampshire.

Hyde said of the Roosevelt employment program: "This grand project is worthy of the 'economic foresight' of the governor."

He estimated that a million men could plant a billion trees each day while there are not two hundred million trees in "all the nurseries of America."

"But suppose there were three hundred million trees available," he continued, "a million men could plant them in about three hours."

"Inauspicious Start."
Moses called Roosevelt's July 4 telegram to the Tammany celebration "an inauspicious beginning" for the governor's "new deal—unless he is dealing from the bottom."

"The Fourth of July, 1776, was the day when the United States declared its independence from British domination," Moses said. "The Fourth of July, 1932, was the day when Franklin D. Roosevelt made known his surrender to Tammany Hall."

Roosevelt, at Albany, made no comment, simply smiling broadly at the Moses and Hyde statements. He doubtless was pleased by Jonett Shouse's announcement in Chicago that he would support the Roosevelt-Garner ticket. Shouse is a close friend of Alfred E. Smith.

Conference Between Hoover and Congress Ends With a Breach

Washington, July 6 (AP).—A two-hour conference between President Hoover and Senate and House leaders on the $2,122,000,000 Wagner-Garner relief bill broke up today with a breach still existing between the legislative and executive branches.

Speaker Garner, co-author of the bill, at first told newspapermen with considerable emphasis as he left the White House that "we did not reach an agreement."

Garner said later, however, that the conferees and the president were "virtually in agreement" upon all points in the huge measure except the section dealing with loans to individuals.

The President has remained adamant in opposition to this provision. Garner said the next step would be to call back a meeting on the measure, and re-discuss it "in the light of the present and last night."

Representative Rainey, the House Democratic leader, was even more emphatic in his stand.

"We are going ahead with the bill as it is," he asserted, "and if he wants to veto it he can."

Asked what points were in disagreement, the white haired Democrat said with a shrug of his shoulders: "We could not agree on anything."

COL. DONOVAN ENTERS GUBERNATORIAL LISTS

Norwich, N. Y., July 6 (AP).—Colonel William J. Donovan, lawyer and war hero, has entered the New York gubernatorial lists. Howard Sumner, secretary of the Chemung county Republican committee, announced last night that headquarters for Donovan will be opened in Norwich.

The chairman of the county committee, Melvin C. Eaton, is in New York planning the Donovan campaign. Sumner said.

Col. Donovan was a deputy attorney general during the Coolidge administration. He commanded the 165th Infantry in the war and was decorated for bravery.

Smith Reynolds, 20, Heir to Millions, Commits Suicide

Son of One of North Carolina's Richest Families Shoots Himself Almost Within Sight of His Bride of a Few Months.

Winston-Salem, N. C., July 6 (AP).—Smith Reynolds, 20 year old heir to the R. J. Reynolds tobacco millions, ended a spectacular career early today by firing a bullet through his head.

The son of one of North Carolina's richest families died in a hospital at 5:25 a. m., four hours after being brought here from his home at Reynolds, the family estate near here.

Ab Walker, of Winston-Salem, told authorities Reynolds shot himself almost within sight of his bride of a few months, the former Libby Holman, Broadway "torch singer."

Walker, a guest at Reynolds's home, said they were preparing to retire about 1 a. m. and that he was closing the windows on the first floor when Reynolds appeared on a balcony outside his bedroom above. A moment later, there came the sound of a muffled shot and Mrs. Reynolds screamed that her husband had been shot.

Dr. W. N. Dalton, county coroner, ordered an autopsy performed. He said he had not decided whether an inquest was necessary and that the autopsy was to determine the direction of the bullet.

Young Reynolds eloped three years ago with Anne Cannon, heiress to the Cannon Textile millions and were married at 2 a. m. in York, S. C.

Marital troubles soon developed shortly afterwards Reynolds settled $1,000,000 on his wife and infant daughter. A few months later, Reynolds flew his wife to Reno where she obtained a divorce.

Reynolds' interest in aviation prompted him to make several airplane jaunts, including one about the Far East with Jean Assolant, French transatlantic flier. He was returning from this trip when Miss Holman went to Hawaii to meet him and they were married there. Announcement of the marriage was not made, however, until their return to New York several weeks later.

New York Friends Stunned

New York, July 6 (AP).—New York friends of Smith Reynolds, youthful tobacco heir, were stunned today by news of his death in Winston-Salem and were at a loss to say why he should wish to take his life.

They pointed out that with youth and millions and a wife who was one of Broadway's most popular stars he had much to live for.

The romance between Reynolds, young sportsman and aviation enthusiast, known throughout the country, and Miss Libby Holman, whose rise to meteoric fame in musical comedy by her throaty "torch singing" was first disclosed in May when they returned from a honeymoon in Honolulu and announced their marriage.

Reynolds was married once before, to the former Anne Cannon. This union ended in divorce last fall and the young millionaire was said to have settled a million dollars on his former wife.

The present Mrs. Reynolds is 26, six years older than her late husband. She rose to prominence on Broadway when her contract singing in the "First Little Show" and her dancing with Clifton Webb caught the fancy of theatre-goers. She has a deep voice of peculiar timbre, is tall and raven-haired. Later she made a hit by rendition of "Oh, Give Me Something to Remember You By."

Reynolds had done much flying, both here and abroad.

When the news of his marriage became public in May he had just returned from an airplane jaunt about the Far East with Jean Assolant, French transatlantic flier. Miss Holman went to Hawaii to meet him and they were married.

Miss Holman was born in Cincinnati, the daughter of a lawyer, and was graduated from the University of Cincinnati, where she studied law.

MISS SMITH KILLED; SENATOR DENNIS INJURED

Halifax, N. S., July 6 (AP).—An X-ray examination was to be made today to ascertain the injuries suffered by Senator W. H. Dennis of Halifax in an automobile crash last night which cost the life of Margaret Smith, librarian at Columbia University, New York.

Senator Dennis, and four others, were injured when two cars collided on a broad stretch of highway near French Village station, 15 miles from here. Dennis was driving.

Miss Smith suffered a fractured skull and other injuries, and died soon after she was admitted to hospital. Her home was in Lunenburg.

PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES INVITED TO STATE FAIR

Syracuse, N. Y., July 6 (AP).—New York state wants both Herbert Hoover and Franklin D. Roosevelt to attend the State Fair in September. An invitation to address the fair will be sent the President, J. Dan Ackerman, director of the fair, announced after conferring with Charles H. Baldwin, Commissioner of Agriculture and Markets.

The New York Governor customarily attends the fair. If President Hoover accepts, the addresses of the two presidential candidates probably will be on separate days, Ackerman said.

One Killed, 4 Injured In Automobile Crash On Ellenville Road

Curt Riedle Died of Skull Fracture As Car He Was Riding in With Four Others Overturned at Sharp Curve.

Curt Riedle, an employee at the Napanoch Country Club, died before he could receive medical treatment and four others were injured, when the Chevrolet sedan in which they were riding left the road after passing the sharp curve east of the Tompkins garage, on the Ellenville-Kingston road about 9 o'clock Tuesday evening. The sedan ran along the side of the road for perhaps 150 feet, part of the time in a ditch, and after turning over three times landed on its right side, the six occupants of the car being thrown through the top, which was completely stripped from the car.

Investigation Made

Trooper Boeninger, who lives near the scene of the accident, was summoned and made an investigation shortly after it occurred. Officials from the sheriff's office also made an investigation.

According to the story told Trooper Boeninger by Hubert Graulich of 336 Fenimore street, Brooklyn, driver of the car, he was driving between 45 and 50 miles an hour and about as he came around the turn, which is a sharp one, or shortly afterward, attempted to pass a car which was ahead of him and going in the same direction, toward Kingston. He evidently ran off the pavement and on to the shoulder of the road, for he said that he lost control of the car and doesn't know what happened after that.

The trooper took the injured people to his home nearby and summoned Coroner Humiston of Kerhonkson, whose ambulance took Mrs. Bertha Riedle, Henry Michel and Mrs. Fanny Michel to the Kingston Hospital. Mr. Riedle, who died before medical help could be summoned, was taken to the Humiston undertaking parlors at Kerhonkson. Hubert Graulich and Mrs. Graulich were taken to the hospital by Edward Westerfall and John Weigle of Kerhonkson, who happened along shortly after the accident occurred.

Were On Visit

The entire party, it is stated, are employed at the Napanoch Country Club and were on their way to Greenkill Park, where they were formerly employed, to visit friends. Mr. Michel and Mrs. Graulich returned to the country club, leaving Mr. Graulich, Mrs. Riedle and Mrs. Michel at the hospital.

A report from Dr. Johnston at the hospital states that Mrs. Riedle is suffering from a broken back and that Mrs. Michel has a bad fracture of the left shoulder and has possibly sustained internal injuries. Graulich was treated for a dislocated left elbow and a broken nose.

FLOODS FOLLOW TORNADO WHICH KILLED FOUR PERSONS.

Kansas City, July 6 (AP).—Householders fled today before floods which visited widely separated parts of the nation on the heels of tornado winds which killed four persons in Kansas and Nebraska.

Streams fed by torrential rains partly inundated towns in Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Ohio and West Virginia. Most of the extensive damage was suffered by farm crops.

Tornadoes killed three persons Monday at Washington, Kas., and a fourth near Hubbard, Neb.

Another trick of the weather brought a killing frost to Star River Valley near Grover, Wyo. Growers said the 25 degree temperature damaged virtually all potato plants and other vegetables and ruined an alfalfa crop.

FEDERAL AGENTS WERE BUSY OVER HOLIDAYS.

Federal agents from Kingston seized a still at Allaben Tuesday with a large quantity of ice mas and uncolored distilled spirits and complete equipment. Lewis Newell was arrested and arraigned before Commissioner Connelly this morning.

At the Washington Hollow Inn, Pleasant Valley, they arrested Henry S. James and seized alleged whiskey, gin and beer. At 921 Main street, Poughkeepsie, the Arlington Inn, they arrested Patsy Raffle and seized alleged whiskey, gin, rum, wine and beer. James and Raffle were arraigned before Commissioner Platt in Poughkeepsie today, charged with possession and sale.

Treasury Receipts.
Washington, July 6 (AP).—Treasury receipts for July 2 were $4,274,827.65; expenditures, $34,214,565.29; balance, $401,319,765.83. Customs duties for two days of July were $1,617,933.55.

• Berlin, July 6 (AP).—James Mattern and H. H. Griffin, American round the world fliers, landed at Tempelhof Airfield at 5:10 p. m. (11:10 a. m. E. S. T.) today.

They brought their red, white and blue ship down on the field a little more than 15 hours after leaving New York.

More than two hours before they landed they had been sighted over Hanover. Finally the sight from Tempelhof within that time, those who awaited them at the field, including United States Ambassador Sackett, began to worry.

It developed, however, that there was some bad weather between here and Hanover, and the globe fliers had been obliged to go out of their way.

The Mattern-Griffin ship was the first flown by Americans to reach Berlin on a non-stop flight from the western hemisphere, and officials at Tempelhof Airfield took note of the extraordinary occasion by raising the Stars and Stripes as the "Century of Progress" tacked across the field.

A Hand Played The Star Spangled Banner

The crowd on hand was not very large because the time of the landing generally was unknown and an intermediate stop had been expected because of storm conditions in North Germany.

Several guests from Port Washington were entertained over the Fourth by Mrs. Frank Whittier at "Tuckaway Farm."

A party of Brooklyn guests were hooked over the week-end at "The Green Hen" overlooking the reservoir at North Main Street Heights. Pete Crawford, proprietor of the Olive Bridge Garage, reports a week-end rush of tourist trade. Perhaps the early rays of prosperity have at last permeated the gloomy depths of depression.

Harris Mones, the veteran Kingston cattle buyer, was a business caller among West Shokan Heights farmers Monday morning.

Vincent Moore of Kingston, who is stopping at Winchell's Cottage, Shokan, was a west side caller Monday morning.

Many friends extended sympathy to Harold Constable in the death of his mother, Mrs. William Quick, of Olive Bridge. Her death followed in less than a year that of her brother, Joseph Constable, of Shokan, and from the same cause, a ruptured appendix.

Mr. and Mrs. Lauren Hesley of Main street have installed a new electric refrigerator.

The north bound week-end traffic which rolled in an almost unbroken stream from Thursday night is reported by Shokan roadside residents as the heaviest ever known. It is just too bad that after everyone was all set with the wonderful weather on Sunday that the glorious Fourth had to be spoiled by the unexpected rain which came down in torrents.

Judge and Mrs. Fred L. Weidner of North Main street entertained a large gathering of Kingston guests over the week-end. Everything was all set for a grand haying bee on Monday and just about clean up the genial judges haying, but the weather man decreed otherwise.

Harry Jordan of Roxbury spent Sunday among relatives and friends in the old home town.

Mrs. Sarah Dwyer of West Shokan Heights has a fine crop of delicious cherries.

Mr. and Mrs. Egbert Van Kleeck of Broadhead entertained a large party of friends and relatives over the week-end.

Mrs. Elizabeth Dombols and daughter, Vera, also Miss Veronica Shaffer of Brooklyn, called on their former landlady, Mrs. Addie Kelder, of West Shokan Heights on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Gordon of Broadhead entertained several relatives from New York city over the fourth.

Mrs. Michael Dwyer of West Shokan Heights entertained a group of city friends from Brooklyn on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Case J. Gwinn of Woodridge were among the weekend guests at the Burgher House. Mr. and Mrs. Gwinn were entertained Sunday evening at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Watson Bishop.

Mr. and Mrs. Shepard Bell, better known as "Uncle Sheppie" and Aunt Odie, were kept quite busy over the week-end with the extensive Fourth of July rush. The West Shokan Inn has a fine location and with the genial hospitality shown by Mr. and Mrs. Bell, it is one of the chief places of attraction on Main street.

There was a large attendance at the I. O. O. F. installation Saturday night at Olive Bridge. The new noble and vice grand are Clifford B. Donahoe and J. Gaylord Ayres. At the close of the session luscious refreshments were enjoyed.

Judge David L. Windrum of Shokan is holding a sale of household goods at his residence with bargains aplenty offered early buyers.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund C. Burgher returned last week from an invigorating trip to Canada.

Mrs. Arza Bell of North Main street recently entertained at her home, "Sunrise Cottage," a group of relatives and friends from Poughkeepsie.

Mr. and Mrs. George Baker of Brooklyn entertained a party of friends over the week-end at their Broadhead bungalow.

Ralph De Palma, famous auto-were married at Las Vegas, Nev., Sunday, the Herald Tribune announced today. Justice P. H.

Springer performed the ceremony.

De Palma gave his age as 43. His bride is 36, and a resident of New York city. The race driver, it was said, attempted to peddle all parties to secrecy, saying publicity would further "muddle" a property settlement with his former wife.

Enjoyed Week-End At Lake Mohonk

President William C. Shafer, of the Ulster County Savings Institution, with Mrs. Shafer report a very delightful week-end and holiday spent at Lake Mohonk, where there were about 400 guests entertained for the Fourth. Mr. Shafer, who remembers Mohonk in its earlier days, says he never saw the place looking as well as it does this summer. He was particularly impressed with the beauties of the large electrified fountain. At religious services held Sunday there was a very excellent sermon preached by Chaplain Montgomery, of the House of Representatives. There was a fine program of sports for the Fourth and Dr. Clarence A. Barbour, president of Brown University, was to give the address on the evening of that day.

Premier Herriot's Stand on War Debts

Declares U. S. Must Revise Schedules or Germany Must Continue to Pay Reparations.

Lausanne, Switzerland, July 6 (AP).—
A far declaration from Premier Herriot of France that either the United States must revise war debt schedules or Germany must continue to pay reparations under the Young plan chilled the atmosphere of Europe's negotiators here today.

At the same time Germany continued to stick tightly to her contention that she can no longer meet the Young plan payments.

Premier Herriot's declaration was made last night at the end of a day of negotiations which led nowhere.
It was given to the press in explanation of why France demands a safeguarding clause, protecting her reparations income in case America remains adamant on the debts, in any agreement negotiated here.

At the same time the impression grew that Chancellor Von Papen of Germany attached the greatest importance to the elimination of the "war guilt" clause from the Treaty of Versailles and restoration of Germany's right to arm, considering them more important, for example, than fixing the amount Germany might still be called upon to pay.

He proposed that his government pay about $600,000,000 in a flat sum on condition the war guilt clause was removed from the treaty and Germany was permitted equality of armaments, but M. Herriot flatly refused to discuss political conditions.

Unofficial Move To Recognize Russia

Moscow, July 6 (AP).—An unofficial move to reopen the question of formal recognition by the United States of the Soviet government was under way here today and there was reason to believe it was being met with favor by Soviet officials.

The move was made by Colonel Frederick Pope, New York Industrialist, acting alone and in a private capacity. Col. Pope presented to Soviet officials a suggestion that the United States send an unofficial commissioner to Russia as a preliminary to negotiations for the establishment of normal relations between the two countries.

He laid the matter before a special meeting of men high in the Soviet regime, among them V. I.
Mezhlauk, vice chairman of the state planning commission; V. V.
Ossinsky, head of the central administration of the national economic council; E. V. Y. Rubins, head of the American department of the commissariat for foreign affairs, and Karl Radok, Russia's foremost international political commentator.

He presented, it was learned, an account of "satisfactory" conversations he had held on the subject in certain quarters in Washington just before he sailed for Russia late last May.

Colonel Pope is expected to return to the United States this month and the prospect was that he would renew his conversations there.
In view of the favorable reception accorded his proposal here the next move probably will depend on the outcome of his Washington conversations.

America's persistent refusal to recognize the Soviet government has been the source of constant disappointment here.

Carried Over The Horseshoe Falls

Niagara Falls, Ont., July 6 (AP).—
A man, believed to have been Nikolai Semenoff, Cleveland, Ohio, is reported to have waded out in the Niagara River near Table Rock at 12:20 a.
m. today and to have been carried over the Horseshoe Falls.

Police said that two persons witnessed the tragedy. The witnesses identified themselves as Harry A.
Dooley, New York city, and E. C.
Crouch, Cayahoga Falls, Ohio. They said that the falls victim climbed the railing near the brink of the horseshoe, waded out into the river and was caught by the current and swept over the cataract. Both witnesses said that they called to the man to stop but he ignored their calls.

On the river bank police found an overcoat with a Paris clothier's label and a walking stick. Investigation showed that Semenoff registered yesterday at the Temperance House in Niagara Falls, N. Y. Relatives had asked police of this city and Niagara Falls, N. Y., to be on the lookout for him.

SHOKAN.

Shokan, July 5.—R. J. Robinson of New York city spent the holiday at the home of his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Mabel Robinson, and his grandchildren, Louis and Annette Robinson.

Miss Alice Sheridan of Dublin, Ireland, is summering at the country home of J. A. Hartwig.

Judge David L. Windrum, who sold his place on the north boulevard recently, is disposing of his household effects preparatory to returning to the village center, where he will occupy the Winchell cottage formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. George W. Bishop. Although the judge has been a resident of Shokan for the greater part of fifty years, he has heretofore lived a mile or so from the post office, his old home on the Plank road having been about that distance from the center of things in Shokan. Among the articles of furniture offered for sale by "Dave" recently were five old cane-bottomed chairs which at a previous auction he had declined to sell, though several artists from Woodstock and other connoisseurs wanted to acquire the antiques. Another relic owned by the judge was a light-colored antique vase which was once the property of John DuBois, wagonmaker and Civil War veteran, and which Dave as a lad used to shoot snakes with along the Butternutkill.

J. Monaco of Jamaica is rusticated at the bungalow of Mrs. Emma Holden on Van Steenburgh Hill where Mrs. Monaco and children are spending the summer.

Business was good here over the Fourth. The Shokan House and annex were filled with guests and several local families entertained a number of visitors. The automobile travel on the north and middle boulevards was unusually heavy from Friday night through Monday.

Sylvester and Henry Wells are carrying on extensive haying operation in and around the village.

A wedding of July 4, 1880, was that which united James A. Terwilliger and Isabelle Phillips, both of the town of Rochester. The marriage took place at the home in Shokan of Albert North and the officiating clergyman was the Rev. R. L. Shurtler, pastor of the M. E. Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Clement Dudley, who have been spending a few days at the Homer Markle place in the west end, have returned to their home in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Elmdorf and Miss Betty Gruber motored to Pittsfield last Saturday to spend the Fourth with relatives and friends in that city.

The first huckleberries of the season were brought here last Friday by Mrs. Alvin Elliott of Pacama.

Former Mayor John E. Kraft of Kingston was a business caller in the village on Friday.

Mrs. Jane Stubley of The Cairn farm has in her front yard a large arbor of rambler roses which is attracting a great deal of attention. The roses in blossom at this time are the Scarlet Climber, the Dorothy Perkins and another variety, which greatly resembles the old-fashioned wild rose so often seen on abandoned farms.

Charles Schipp, master mechanic at Lyons garage in Ashokan, has been out on the road selling cars during the past few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Abbott of New York city are enjoying the simple life in a tent on the Van Steenburgh farm, near the ruins of the old stone schoolhouse, about a half mile from the post office.

of Shokan over the bodies of Charles Conroy and wife who were killed by the upsetting of a load of hay.

John and Earl Kirm are gathering hay on the slopes of the Beaverkill dyke for use on the Kirm dairy farm on the mountain road.

Although several hard showers visited this section last Friday afternoon, the local brooks were not raised appreciably by the downpour. The ground still appears to soak up water about as soon as it falls.

D. Wandt is doing considerable grading of his newly purchased residence property near the Ridge road.

TAKE CARE OF YOUR PLANTS DURING HOT, DRY WEATHER

In hot, dry weather, such as we generally have in mid-summer, plants must receive special attention, if they are to continue to thrive. By this we mean that they must be watered regularly and have a sufficient supply of plant food available during this dry season of the year.

Do not follow the usual practice of sprinkling your lawn and garden lightly every day. This is a harmful method, because it tends to cause shallow rooting of the plants and makes them susceptible to injury during extremely hot weather. It is always well to soak the soil thoroughly a couple of times a week. If you apply enough water so that the soil is wet to a depth of several inches it will certainly help your plants to thrive during mid-summer.

Don't neglect your garden. It is a good idea to do some hoeing or cultivating at this time because it aids in maintaining the moisture content of the soil. Be careful not to work the soil more than an inch in depth, as some of the tender feeding roots of many of the plants are located near the surface.

IMMEDIATE DELIVERY—DE SOTO, DODGE AND CHRYSLER DEALERS

What's New in the food markets?

MRS. JONES, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Robinson, and many, many others—all tell us that they profit by following the food news in the advertising columns of the Daily Freeman. Not only do they know what's new but they find they can shop more economically and place better meals on their tables. New foods, for variety . . . bargains, for economy . . . quality foods at special prices, for better meals . . . that is what a reading of the food advertisements in the Daily Freeman does for countless women in Kingston. If YOU haven't formed the habit yet—try it. You'll find it saves you time.

The Daily Freeman carries more food advertising than any other paper in Kingston territory, because advertisers know that food-buyers read the Freeman. And that assures the food-buyer of having all the news of the food-markets, all the time.

No Action Taken On Work Relief

The same action was taken on the resolution introduced by Alderman Henry which would prevent out of town trucking concerns making stops to store deliveries in the city, but would be forced to deliver all merchandise to a designated terminal. The resolution follows:

It is resolved, that an ordinance be enacted prohibiting more door delivery service by the Heavy Motor Hauling concerns engaged in transportation of miscellaneous freight from outside areas. Further, requiring said Motor Hauling Lines to make delivery and assemble at or to a single terminal or warehouse.

Such an ordinance would, it is believed, protect in a great measure our local truckmen, local common rail carriers, and river water lines, etc. It would allow local truckmen to enjoy store delivery of freight, by all rights theirs, employ more men in our railroad yards, freight platforms, boat terminals, in time increase activity and employment in our now idle boat and shipyards, and in a great measure relieve burdensome taxes on our citizens.

It would also lessen the menace of these large trucks blocking up traffic on our business streets at just the time when space is needed for parking and proper control of traffic.

Penalty for violation of proposed ordinance to be left to council.

Alderman Henry's Idea

No Action on Petition

The laws and rules committee did not submit a report on the petition of St. Mary's Church asking that its property on Wurts street at West Pierpont street be placed in the business zone. The church is planning to sell the property to be used as an oil station if it can be placed in the business zone.

Last month the laws and rules committee held a public hearing in the matter at which time considerable objection to having a gas station on the property was raised by residents of the vicinity.

Attorney Robert G. Groves was present at the meeting but when the committee failed to make a report he left. He represented interested objectors at the public hearing held by the committee.

Armory For Civic Center

Alderman Epstein asked if some steps could not be taken to make Kingston a convention town. He said that the Reformed Church Synod which met here recently had meant considerable to the city in the way of business.

Heisselman suggested that the city might take over the old state armory on Broadway and use it for a civic center to hold conventions and other gatherings in.

It was brought out that as soon as the new state armory is completed that the old armory will be turned back to Ulster county. The county owns the land on which it is located.

Alderman Zucca said he had been talking with one of the county officials and that it was said the county desired to get at least $50,000 for the property, and that when it was turned back to the county at the completion of the new armory the county would have to sell it.

"That would not prevent the county selling it to the city for a dollar," observed President Heisselman with a smile.

Motions and Resolutions

Before adjourning, the following motions and resolutions were introduced and referred to the proper city boards and departments:

By Alderman Reinhard — That South Clinton avenue be repaired and the weeds cut.

Alderman Derrenbacher — That street superintendent make a tour of the Seventh ward. There are a number of holes to be filled, particularly on Aheol, Spring, Hunter and West Strand.

Death's Holiday At Elverhoj Play House

For their second offering of the season the Elverhoj Players at Mill-on-Hudson under the management of John Avery Curtis, Jr., have Evans and Walter Walden present this week Albert Camella's moving drama, "Death Takes a Holiday," which in the translation of Taliesin Walter Ferris served Philip Merivale as a successful carrying vehicle for many months on Broadway. Ambitious though it might seem for a summer theatre organization to present the play in the competent hands of players and director brings to the Hudson Valley its most poetically dramatic entertainment of recent years.

Beautifully conceived in the playwright's imagination, "Death Takes a Holiday" tells the story of the Grim Reaper's visit to the Duke Lambert's Italian castle in the guise of an expected guest who has previously fallen beneath Death's scythe. In turn the women of the household come under his spell but none has the complete courage to follow him but Grazia, promised bride of the duke's son who fulfills the doctrine that Love is greater than Death even though it mean the passing and sad partings of mortals.

As the Prince Sirki (Death) Hunter Gardner, who has played the role many times with the Bonstelle Stock company of Detroit, brings a fine voice, precision of acting and excellent physique to the part. One of the finest characterizations of the play is that of Robert Le Sueur as Baron Cesare, an aged diplomat, whose youth, in the author's conception, was, ironically, renewed temporarily by Death's visit. Mr. Le Sueur, one of the American theater's most careful and studious actors gives a remarkably moving and human interpretation. As Grazia Joan Hathaway was an appealing character suggesting the fragility of a young girl drawn by a great love that she alone of her friends could understand.

W. Messenger Bellis, who played Mr. Lane in last week's play, "The Bride the Sun Shines On," is Duke Lambert, the second longest role in "Death Takes a Holiday," giving a wide variety of emotional acting and sincerely effective work. Bram Nossen in a colorful bit, replete with romantically written lines, makes a picturesque Major Whitbread of the Foreign Legion. Russell Rhodes, the supercilious English butler of "The Bride the Sun Shines On," is a polished Eric Fenton, man of the world, friend of the Duke's family and in love with Aida, played by Ethel Borden. Alan Campbell is Corrado, the duke's son; Eleanor Hopkinson is Stephanie, his wife; Evelyn Peirce is the Princess San Luca; Jean Howard plays Rhoda Fenton; Joseph Julian is the butler and Julian Taberna, the maid.

The Elverhoj Players are a company and as an organization are receiving congratulations for this production. It is beautifully lighted and designed by Walter Walden.

Designed in 6 sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches bust measure. Size 38 will require 3 1/2 yards of 39 inch material if made of one material. To make as illustrated in the large view will require 2 1/2 yards for skirt, belt, cuffs and lower portions of the waist, and 1 1/2 yard for the sleeves and upper portions of the waist. The width of the dress at the lower edge with fullness extended is 2 yards.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 12c in coin or stamps by the Pattern Department, The Freeman, Kingston, N. Y. Be sure to state the size wanted.

Edwin Carter Killed
On Vacation Trip

Brookings, S. D., July 6 (AP)—A vacation trip to Alaska of two sons of American Telephone & Telegraph Company magnates ended here last night in an auto accident in which one was killed and the other injured.

Edwin Carter, 22, son of E. F. Carter, vice-president of the company, died of a broken neck when his automobile crashed through a fence near Aurora, after failing to make a turn in the road.

Walter Sherman Gifford, 14-year-old son of W. S. Gifford, president of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, suffered a crushed left arm.

Dr. Pemberton of the Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minn., was expected to arrive today to care for the youth at the request of Mr. Gifford, who was on his way from New York.

Brookings hospital authorities said that while the injury to young Gifford's arm was painful, it was not serious.

Gifford just learning to drive was at the wheel when the accident occurred. He apparently failed to notice the turn in the road and the car plunged into a ditch, jumped a fence and plowed about 75 feet down a field before stopping.

Carter was thrown from the automobile and his head struck the fence.

I. S. Liner Confesses Double Slaying

Los Angeles, July 6 (AP)—Irvin S. Liner, 45-year-old unemployed accountant, was held today on a charge of murdering Edwin H. Clarke, 53, retired New Jersey Telephone official, and his wife, Mrs. Kendal Clarke, 55.

Police said Liner confessed he killed the couple with a pistol when they attacked him with a hammer and butcher knife after Clarke had accused him of undue attentions to Mrs. Clarke. Liner denied forcing his attentions on Mrs. Clarke.

Liner was reported to have confessed last night after more than 20 hours of questioning by detectives, who had held him since the finding of the bodies of the couple in their home the night of July 4.

Liner left Los Angeles recently to go to a sick son in Manila, P. I., the Clarke had invited Liner to come to live with them. Police said Liner admitted Clarke accused him Monday of being attentive to Mrs. Clarke.

"It seems we have a triangle here," Clarke was quoted by Liner as saying in the latter's reported confession. "An argument followed which reached a climax when the couple attacked him, Liner told police.

When first taken into custody, Liner said he was watering the lawn when he heard shots fired. He said he saw a man run from the house and expressed belief robbers had committed the slayings.

Clarke, a former resident of East Orange, N. J., came to Los Angeles two years ago. Liner, a native of Louisville, Ky., has been a resident of Los Angeles for 20 years.

Hoover's Proposals Are Pigeonholed

Foes of Murray Lead in Primary

Kingston, July 6 (AP).—Plans were made today to praise, but President Hoover's proposals for a one-third reduction of the world's armament and the disarmament conference prepared to adjourn next fall.

The conference was scheduled to make a declaration before it adjourned praising the President's suggestions and setting forth the points on which the various delegations are approximately agreed. The delegations which have not expressed themselves on the plan are given a chance to have their views at a session of the general conference of the conference which will be held tomorrow. Last night the executive bureau authorized Sir John Simon, British foreign secretary, to start drafting the general declaration with which the work of the conference will be ended for the summer.

Besides the tribute to the Hoover proposals, the declaration will say some of the phases of the plan require considerable time for study by the powers concerned and an agreement of the points upon which there is virtual agreement. This procedure, proposed by Sir John, was approved by Ambassador Hugh Gibson of the United States and Joseph P. Broussard of France.

Oklahoma City, July 6 (AP).—Incomplete returns today from Oklahoma's initial primary election showed leads in most major races for candidates who made their campaigns without benefit of Governor William H. Murray's stamp of approval.

Nearly 9,000 candidates were in the field for offices ranging from township posts to United States senator.

Leading a group of candidates opposed by the chief executive, Mrs. Mabel Bassett, state commissioner of charities, held a lead for the Democratic nomination for congressman-at-large. The returns indicated Murray's choice—Claude Weaver—was eliminated. He ranked fourth.

Another Murray favorite, Neil Garner, trailed in the race for seventh district congressman. The leader was J. V. McClintic, a Democrat, who has represented the district since 1914.

The hardest fight any congressional incumbent encountered was that put up by Alex Johnston, Oklahoma attorney and oil man, against W. W. Hastings, favored by Governor Murray, in the second district. They were running neck and neck.

E. W. Marland, oil man who made and lost a fortune, appeared assured of the Democratic nomination for congress in the eighth district.

Oklahoma's senior United States senator, the white haired Elmer Thomas, faced a run-off contest in his campaign for re-nomination on the Democratic ticket.

While Thomas polled a vote exceeding that of K. M. McCool and Gomer Smith, combined, ballots cast for four other candidates apparently will prevent him from obtaining a majority.

FARM BUREAU RAT CAMPAIGN NEXT FALL

In response to the numerous requests for a rat campaign the Farm Bureau directors have arranged for such a campaign with the U. S. Biological Survey next fall. Many members desired to secure the rat bait last spring, but due to the fact that Ulster county was not entered as a campaign county, it could not be secured. Next fall everyone desiring the bait can secure it. Full details will be given out later.

Smiles.
 Everything is breaking bad
 and it's worse than a war.
 You can't bump your shoulders
 and take it with a smile.
 The road is rough.
 It's a step seems a mile.
 You can't face up to the sun
 and take it with a smile.
 Times are sure to come again to bump up, don't give in.
 In the end you'll find a laugh and just a smile has been.

Man always seems decent when he's generous and almost always seems rude when he's in a profit. The best of pride is that which commands a man to do his best work, even though no one is looking.
 If we do our best for two months, we find ourselves doing work we are ashamed of at the end of three months.

When people are obliged to do things they don't like, they soon hear of commutation tickets being sold on the railroad between New York and Reno.
 They haven't changed much—at least man fell for the apple.
 He's falling for the peaches.
 Fools rush in where fools have been before. When your enemy is too big to whip you should forgive him. "All the world's a stage," with each actor crowding for a space in the spotlight. Our idea of a terrible example, is that one in arithmetic on which we flunked.

They were stopping at a big hotel,
 and the wife, returning from a shopping tour, found that on their floor the doors looked alike. She knocked at what she thought was the right one, and knocked and whispered:
 "The wife—I'm back home. Let me in."
 No answer.
 The wife—Honey, O. Honey, I am I'm back!
 Still no answer.
 The wife—Oh, say Honey, let me
 in. You hear me, Honey?
 Strange man's voice (bellowing)
 "Madam, this is not a beehive. This is a bath room."

Do Your Shopping Early. I carry a nice line of Caskets at rereasonable prices. When in need of one call and look over my line. Advertisement in a Florida paper.

He made an unusually good after-dinner speech. "Walter, give me the check."
 Says Able—Cohen, I've been to the bank to borrow some money, and they say all I need is that you should sign to this note your name.
 Then I can have all the money I need. Ain't they fine?
 Says Cohen—(reproachfully)—
 Able, you and I have been friends for many years, and yet you go to a bank when you need money. Able, you just go again to the bank and say that they should sign the note, and then Cohen will lend you the money.

What a world! By the time we're important enough to take two hours for lunch, the doctor limits us to a glass of milk.

Teacher—Harold, in the sentence
 "I saw the girl climb the fence,"
 how many I's would you use?
 Harold—Both of them, teacher.

Our idea of a brute of a husband is one who believes in clubs for women, provided only that he can wield them.

Marjorie—How did you get that ugly scratch on your cheek?
 Gertrude—When I said good-bye to the boss at the office he had a pen behind his ear.

Boss—Do you find the office force
 so big family?
 New Stenographer—No, I've found everybody congenial so far.

Only Experts to Broadcast Bouts

New York, July 6 (AP)—Only "boxing experts" will be permitted to broadcast radio descriptions of matches in this state hereafter, the New York Athletic Commission has decided.

The new rule is an outgrowth of the controversy over radio accounts of the recent Schmeling-Sharkey bout in which Charles Francis (Doc) Goetz and Graham McNamee, announcer, indicated Schmeling had gained a wide lead on points over Sharkey. A majority of critics at the time also thought the German had won, but the commission approved the decision that gave Sharkey the fight and the heavy-weight championship.

The commission said it considered a boxing or wrestling sports writer, referee or judge, competent to broadcast boxing or wrestling bouts.

Tailets Win Third In Row by Victory Over Schryvers, 5-3

The Tailets Bormen continued their winning ways and ran their streak to three straight by defeating the Schryvers Lumbermen at the Athletic Field Tuesday evening. The score was 5 to 3 and the victory drew the Bormen nearer the league-leading Pirates. In percentage points the Bormen hold second place, but are in a virtual tie with the Lumbermen in games won and lost.

A four-run rally in the second inning was all the Bormen needed to win. They were trailing 2-1 when they went to bat in this inning and before they were retired they had the game sewed up.

"Big Ed" Wilson's inability to locate the plate and throwing base hits at the same time was the chief reason for the Lumbermen's defeat. He staggered through the first inning after walking three and hitting one batsman, but couldn't withstand the Bormen's assault in the second. He walked two and allowed four hits in this inning and when the third inning rolled around Wilson had departed. Wilson was relieved by North, who checked the Bormen and did a good relief job.

In the meantime, Nick Huber, winning pitcher, was plugging along to a well-earned victory despite heavy attacks on him in the first and fifth frames. He was nicked for three hits apiece in these stanzas. It was at these stages that he rose to his best.

The Lumbermen registered first, taking a two-run lead in the opening frame. After two were out "Coke" Tiano singled through Sickler. Rider followed with one to center field and both runners advanced a base on a wild pitch. Slover singled through the infield and Tiano and Rider, dented the rubber.

The Bormen retaliated in their half of the first by scoring one. F. Bruhn received a walk, Stumpf was hit by a pitched ball and Tomasek and L. Bruhn also walked to force F. Bruhn across the platter.

Wilson continued his wildness and walked Huber and F. Bruhn in the second inning, which paved the way for the Bormen's winning rally. After the two walks Stumpf singled to right field to fill the bases and Sickler hit to the same spot, sending Huber and F. Bruhn home. Tomasek sacrificed Stumpf in and Schwab singled to left field, Sickler registering.

The Lumbermen scored the final run of the game in the fifth inning. North, Tiano and Rider hit singles to produce the tally.

SPORT SLANTS

By Alan J. Gould
(Associated Press Sports Editor.)

A milestone in the path toward still another record, in a year when the sports fan already is groggy trying to keep up with new and gaudier achievements, was reached the other day when Lou Gehrig played in his 1,037th consecutive game with the New York Yankees.

Lou's appearance equalled the long run his teammate, little Joey Sewell, reeled off with the Indians and set the big Yankee buster off after Everett "Deacon" Scott's high mark of 1,307 straight contests.

In a country where such things as tree-sitting can spring up over night and marathon dancers can be induced to shuffle weeks on end, it seems there is a premium on a mere doing of something—well or poorly—no one else ever has done before, and men go to extraordinary lengths to keep some budding "record" intact.

Deacon's Rido

Deacon Scott back in 1922 took a wild ride across the midwest, commandeering every vehicle available, to reach Chicago in time for a game between the Yanks and the White Sox after a train wreck had held him up. At the time Deacon's string extended back to 1916.

Deacon's long run, started with the Boston Red Sox, was severed finally, when the Yanks no longer could go along with a lame shortstop. Sewell's bid ended in 1930 after an extended bout with illness which had seen him in the game playing for only a few innings when he might better have been in bed.

Now Sewell already has been nipped by Gehrig, and it almost is a certainty—at least as certain as anything can be predicted for the future—that some bright morning the little Deacon is going to see his mark shoved to second place in the record books.

LOU AT PEAK

Gehrig at present is at the height of his playing powers, slugging well, at a murderous pace, fielding well. He has the constitution of a horse—his favorite dish is eels—and it is not likely that illness will take him from the game.

Indeed, in his own "Hairbreath Harry" escapes from having his chance at a record spoiled, physical condition has played little part. He has received the customary leg and arm hurts that assail a ball player, but even half out of commission he is still quite a man. He weighs 200 pounds and looks as though he could bend an iron bar across his chest.

Gehrig's narrowest escape came this year when he was subpoenaed and all day sat in court to testify while game time neared—then it rained.

Yes, Gehrig's chances look bright, but so did Sewell's, and Scott at one time thought his record impregnable. The world will move on in any event.

Catcher Suspended For Assault on Runner

Bill Dicker, Yankee catcher, was suspended on Tuesday by President William Harridge, of the American League, for assaulting Carl Reynolds, Washington outfielder. Dicker struck Reynolds and fractured his jaw. On a second play for home after a squeeze sprint, Reynolds charged into Dicker, who was blocking the plate, and scored the winning run. Dicker then swung his "jawbreaker" charging the Washington star with unnecessary roughness. It is presumed Dicker will remain out of the game until the recovery of Reynolds.

Dick Dulin and Pres. Knight also played with the Connelly team.

CHICAGO CUB CATCHER

INSURED BY FIREMANS

Chicago, July 6 (AP)—Ralph Hayley's fourth of July celebration kept him from helping the Cubs in their effort to regain first place in the National League for a week more.

It became known today that the young catcher suffered a powder burn to his left eye as the result of the premature explosion of a cracker at Pittsburgh Monday. The eye was badly inflamed today and he was not expected to be back in action for at least a week. Lefty Gabby Hartnett to do all the catching.

News of Today In Kingston

Did you ever hear of people taking rides in airplanes for layovers? Well, that's just what they're doing, according to reports. It's the altitude that helps.

Anytime rides are rather expensive. Why not try taxiing instead? You'd have altitude there and the record to try for. Of course, you'd stay on the perch until your fever of lay was absolutely cured. It might be any length of time. You might even come down with gray hair.

It seems sort of early for the fever but some are bothered more than others. For these people there probably will be scheduled on the airport schedule. "Hay fever rides, so much a sneeze."

Night baseball here has died out. It seems there wasn't enough night fans. Either that or the mosquitoes were too many. However, after a fair trial the experiment fell below its desired attraction and so the conclusion. "Night baseball hasn't got the thrill," a fan was heard to say.

Others said you had to sit in a cloud of smoke in order to be a survivor. It seems neither the fans or the game will have justice done to them at night.

Saugerties had a night game on the Fourth of July. It was rather well attended. There was fireworks after the battle, so which was the attraction might be considered.

The game was staged under an arc light which seems rather impossible. Still, as long as you're not unexpectedly hit by a ball during one of these combats you're not so bad off.

Kingston movie fans will be interested in the following printed this morning in one of the New York dailies:

Dorothy Fletcher, author of "Merrily We Go to Hell," merrily went to jail yesterday for three days.

The author of the popular talkie was arraigned before Magistrate Walsh in Bronx traffic court on a charge of leaving the scene of an accident. She pleaded guilty and the court fined her $50.

She said she would spend three days in jail rather than pay $50. "Merrily We Go to Hell" played at the Broadway Theatre last week.

It might be a good idea to get the list of merchants who contributed to the Max Schmeling fund and take up another collection for a wedding present for Der Maxie. It was announced today in a New York daily that the former champ might get married to Anny Ondra, European movie star, as a result of a library romance. It was also inferred that he might quit the ring.

It seems to be the fashion of heavyweights to box a few times; get the people's money and then take unto themselves a wife and go Shakespeare. That is, become high hat, be intellectual and read everything nobody else understands.

That's the way of many heavyweights today.

At The Theatres

Today

Kingston: "Two Seconds." A man is being kidnapped. Witnesses and newspaper men, who are watching, are told that the prisoner will have two seconds of consciousness following the first electric shock. This tale, intense and startling from beginning to end, is a picture of the things that pass through the mind of the condemned man in those two short moments of consciousness. It is a terrific drama, the type of play that moves every moment of the time. Howard Robinson, as the doomed man, gives another memorable performance and proves himself to be an actor of distinction. Others in the cast are Guy Kibbee, Vivienne Osborne and Preston Foster, a newcomer, who gives an impressive performance. Much credit for this dramatic masterpiece must be attributed to the director, Mervyn LeRoy. Powerful entertainment.

Bloomington: "The Lottery." The winners of a rich sweepstakes find themselves in a publisher's home, at his invitation. Crooks, men and women of questionable reputation, a prizefighter, and an idealistic American are part of the assembled group. What happens in this sensational group is interesting and enjoyable. Elia Landi, Victor McLaglen, Beryl Mercer, Paul Cavanaugh and Barbara Weeks are in the cast. The "Shakespearean" night pictures are an added attraction.

Broadway: "Thunder Below." Tallulah Bankhead, whose motion picture offerings have been none too popular so far, does well in a story that at last gives her an opportunity to prove her capabilities. She makes the most of her chances, and emerges from this torrid tale of the tropics a finished actress with an unusually attractive screen personality. The play itself isn't so much. It's the story of a white woman in the tropics, married to one man and loving another. The ending is rather tragic, but the show manages to be fairly entertaining throughout. The supporting cast offers Paul Lukas, Ralph Forbes and Charles Dickford.
